

Side event at the UNFCCC in Copenhagen

Future flexible mechanisms

Discussion on roles of future flexible mechanisms in an emerging international framework¹

Venue: Halfdan Rasmussen Thursday, 10 December 2009, 16:30-18:00

Agenda

Welcome by Chair: Bo Kjellén, Former chief climate negotiator for Sweden; Senior Research Fellow, Stockholm Environment Institute (SEI)

Key messages: Noriko Fujiwara, Head of Climate Change, Centre for European Policy Studies

Joint Implementation beyond 2012: Benoît Leguet, Director, Mission Climat, Caisse des Dépôts; Vice Chair of the JI Supervisory Committee [7 minutes]

An investor's perspective: Simone Mori, Director and Executive Vice President for Environmental and Regulatory Policy, Enel [7 minutes]

An industry perspective: Nick Campbell, Chairman, Climate Change Working Group, Business Europe [7 minutes]

A market perspective: Steven Gray, Associate, Climate Change Capital [7 minutes]

An American perspective: Rob Bradley, Director of International Climate Policy, World Resources Institute [7 minutes]

Discussion

¹ This meeting aims at presentation of the final report of the CEPS Task Force, 'Flexible mechanisms in support of a new climate change regime: The Clean Development Mechanism and beyond', which can be downloaded free at:

<http://www.ceps.eu/book/flexible-mechanisms-support-new-climate-change-regime-clean-development-mechanism-and-beyond>

For information about the CEPS Task Force on future flexible mechanisms, please see:

http://www.ceps.be/Article.php?article_id=608