

European Climate Platform (ECP)

An Initiative by MISTRA's Climate Policy Research Programme (CLIPORE) and the Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS)

Second ECP Seminar

STRATEGIC ASPECTS OF THE 2006 EU ETS REVIEW

Agenda

Wednesday 5th of April 2006

Venue: Representation of Baden-Württemberg to the EU, Rue Belliard 60-62 ¹ Room: Karlsruhe-Stuttgart

- 09:00 Registration and coffee
- 09:30 Welcome by Deborah Cornland, Program Director CLIPORE and Christian Egenhofer, CEPS
- 09:35 Introduction by ECP co-chair: Frank Convery, Heritage Trust Professor of Environmental Policy at University College Dublin
- 09:45 Lessons from the first phase of the EU ETS for the 2006 Review ***
Introduction by Christian Egenhofer, CEPS and Lars Zetterberg, IVL and ETIC project
- lessons learned so far including competitive impacts (both within the EU and towards third countries);
 - implications: i) for NAP-2, ii) 2006 EU ETS review, including signals for business investment decisions
 - repercussions for a global carbon market (i.e. linking of schemes etc.)
- 10:00 Comments on Lessons learned and implications for NAP phase 2 and beyond by Jos Sijm, ECN
- 10:10 Comments by Klaus Radunsky, Austrian Environment Protection Agency, on implications for the EU ETS review (with some initial insights from the LETS project)
- 10:20 Comments by Peter Zapfel, Head of ETS, European Commission
- 10:30 Open discussion

¹ For further information, e.g. on how to get to the venue, please contact Isabelle.Tenaerts@ceps.be; Tel. +32 2 229 3956.

* Based on a short – maximum 10-page – ECP Background Paper, which will be distributed two weeks in advance of the meeting.

- 11:30 Coffee Break
- 12:00 Open discussion (cont'd)
- 12:30 The EU ETS as instrument to create signals for greener business investment decisions?
Introduction by Martin Cames, Öko-Intsitut
- 12:40 Open discussion
- 13:00 Light lunch
- 14:00 Open discussion (cont'd)
- 15:00 The role of the EU ETS in an emerging global carbon market
Introduction by Michel Colombier, IDDRI
- 15:10 Open discussion
- 16:30 Conclusions and wrap-up by the Chair
- 16:45 Further information by Deborah Cornland and Christian Egenhofer on the presentation of the final ECP report on EU ETS Review and its presentation at the UNFCCC SB meetings in Bonn.
- 17:00 at the latest: End of the meeting