

The Future of European labour markets: fact-checking the vision

18 February 2013

8h45 – 17h30, CEPS, Place du Congrès 1, Brussels

#neujobs

Programme

8h45 - 9h15	Registration
9h15 – 9h30	Introduction	Miroslav Beblavý (NEUJOBS Coordinator) and Marc Goffart (European Commission, DG RTD)
9h30 – 10h45	Session 1	A polarised labour market in a polarised society? Will there be more or less polarisation in the future in income, employment and skills? What are the possible scenarios and what can policy-makers do? Panel organiser: Ilaria Maselli (Centre for European Policy Studies) Speakers: Miroslav Beblavý (Centre for European Policy Studies), Barbara Vis (University of Amsterdam), Lucia Kureková (Slovak Governance Institute), Frank Vandenbroucke (KU Leuven)
10h45 – 12h00	Session 2	The future of labour: A brave new world vs Dickens How will the very meaning of “work” and “labour” change in the upcoming decades? How is the mantra of job quality reflected in practice, especially given Europe’s diversity? Panel organiser: Anna Thum (Centre for European Policy Studies) Speakers: Marina Fischer-Kowalski (Institute of Social Ecology), János Kovács (Institute for Human Sciences), Denis Pennel (Eurociett), Agnès Parent-Thirion (Eurofound)

12h00 – 13h00

LUNCH

12h30 - 13h00

SPEED PRESENTATIONS*

Extract from the Topics:

- The misunderstood impact of ageing on future labour markets;
- Green skills for green jobs

* Speed Presentations will be one-to-one presentations of 5 minutes. Findings from a specific research questions will be presented in this form to people that will register in the morning. The entire session will last approximately 30 minutes.

NEUJOBS

CREATING AND ADAPTING JOBS IN EUROPE IN THE CONTEXT OF A SOCIO-ECOLOGICAL TRANSITION

The Future of European labour markets: fact-checking the vision

18 February 2013

8h45 – 17h30, CEPS, Place du Congres 1, Brussels

#neujobs

13h00 – 14h30

Session 3

Innovation, socio-ecological transition and the labour market: do we understand the interaction?

NEUJOBS research shows that innovation, socio-ecological transition and the labour market (including policies) can interact in surprising and important ways. What are they?

Panel organiser: Olaf Van Vliet (Leiden University)

Speakers: Bart Van Ark (The Conference Board Europe), Iulia Siedschlag (Economic and Social Research Institute), Maria Jepsen (European Trade Union Institute)

14h30 – 16h00

Session 4

What can we say about the structure of the future labour demand and supply?

Panel organiser: Baptiste Boitier (Société Européenne d'Economie)

Speakers: Hilmar Schneider (Institute for the Study of Labour), Tomáš Sirovátka (Masaryk University), Paul Zagame (Société Européenne d'Economie), Thomas Hemmelgarn (European Commission, DG Taxud)

16h00 – 16h30

Coffee Break

16h30 – 17h30

Session 5

Battle of minds – how does change happen?

An open debate by the project's thinkers and the EC Commissioner on what kind of change is ahead for us during the socio-ecological transition and how to get there.

Panel organiser: Iain Begg (London School of Economics and Political Science)

Speakers: László Andor (Member of the European Commission responsible for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion), Daniel Gros (Centre for European Policy Studies), Marina Fisher-Kowalski (Institute of Social Ecology), Bart Van Ark (The Conference Board Europe), Maria Jepsen (European Trade Union Institute)

* * * Drinks and refreshments will be offered from 17h30 onwards. * * *