

ECRI EVENT

European Credit Research Institute

Lending to households after the crisis How should the lessons from the past be reflected in regulation?

CEPS Conference Room

Place de Congrès 1, Brussels

16 May 2013 – 11:00-16:00

ECRI will host a conference to assess how the current policy initiatives and regulatory developments meet the challenges of the new market environment. The discussions will be based on the launch of the ECRI Research Report on household debt during the crisis, which analyses the causes and consequences of recent developments in household debt.

The event will focus on the challenges of the post-crisis environment and will address what future legislative initiatives are necessary to promote sustainable household debt.

Main speakers

- Antolín Sánchez Presedo
Member of the European Parliament
Rapporteur on the Mortgage Directive
- Maria Lissowska
Head of Sector Financial and Economic Analysis
European Commission, DG SANCO
- Jonathan Crook
Director of the Credit Research Centre, Professor of Business Economics
University of Edinburgh, Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh
- Adrian Steiner
Retail Financial Services and Consumer Policy Unit
European Commission, DG MARKT
- Hans W. Grohs
President, European Consumer Debt Network
- James Devenney
Head of Law School, Exeter University
- Mel Kenny
Chair of Consumer and Commercial Law, De Montfort University
- Bernard Bayot
President, European Financial Inclusion Network

Lunch will be provided.

The full list of speakers and the programme is available at www.ecri.eu

For more information contact ales.chmelar@ceps.eu

