

Inequality in Europe: What Can Be Done? What Should Be Done?

Friday, 11 October	Programme
09:00-09:15	Registration and Coffee
09:15-09:30	Welcome and Introduction
09:30-11:30	Keynote Speech: Lower Social Mobility: The Long-run Cost of Higher Inequality Maurizio Franzini, University of Rome "La Sapienza" Inequality in Ireland's Recession: What Has Happened - and Why? Tim Callan, ESRI Inequality in Germany Gerhard Bosch, University of Duisburg-Essen
11:30-12:00	Coffee Break
12:00-13:00	Trends and Episodes of Income Distribution Change in Hungary István Tóth, TÁRKI The Cycle of Earnings Inequality: Evidence from Spanish Social Security Data Laura Hospido, Banco de España
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:00	Policies to Tackle Inequality in the EU Ive Marx, University of Antwerp View from the European Commission Raymond Maes, member of the cabinet of László Andor, Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion
15:00-16:00	Round Table Debate Inequality – Cyclical Phenomenon or Structural Trend?