

What is happening to the democracies and unresolved conflicts of Eastern Europe?

Monday, 7 October, 2019

Public conference at CEPS, 1 Place du Congres, Brussels 1000

13.30-14.00 Registration & Coffee

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Steven Blockmans & Michael Emerson, CEPS

14.10:15.50 What is happening to the democracies?

Introduction and moderator:

Steven Blockmans, Senior Research Fellow & Head of Europe in the World

Speakers:

Richard Youngs, Carnegie Europe

Ghia Nodia, Ilya State University, Tbilisi

Denis Cenușă, Expert-Grup, Chisinau & Justus-Liebig University, Giessen

Artem Remizov, IER, Kyiv

Syuzanna Vasilyan, ULB, Brussels

Discussants:

Jerzy Pomianowski, European Endowment for Democracy, Brussels

Laure Delcour, IRIS, Paris

15.50:17.30 What is happening to the unresolved conflicts?

Moderator:

Michael Emerson, CEPS

Speakers:

Nikolaus von Twickel, freelance analyst, Berlin

Thomas de Waal, Carnegie Europe

Discussants:

Richard Tibbels, European External Action Service (TBC)

Andrey Makarychev, University of Tartu

Natalia Mirimanova, conflict resolution scholar, Brussels

Bruno Coppieters, VUB - Brussels

17.30:17.40 Conclusions

Steven Blockmans and Michael Emerson

Sweden
Sverige

INSTITUTE
FOR ECONOMIC RESEARCH
AND POLICY CONSULTING

Reformatics

Expert-Grup
Independent Think-Tank