

This project has received funding from the European Union under grant agreement NUMBER — 882151 — GREENSTEEL

GREENSTEEL for Europe final conference

WP3 – policy options

Milan Elkerbout, CEPS, 10 November 2021

The information and views set out in this document do not necessarily reflect the official opinion of the European Commission. The European Commission does not guarantee the accuracy of the data included in this document. Neither the European Commission nor any person acting on the European Commission's behalf may be held responsible for the use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Challenges for the steel industry

Lack of availability of scraps

Insufficient volumes of renewables

Lack of availability of green hydrogen

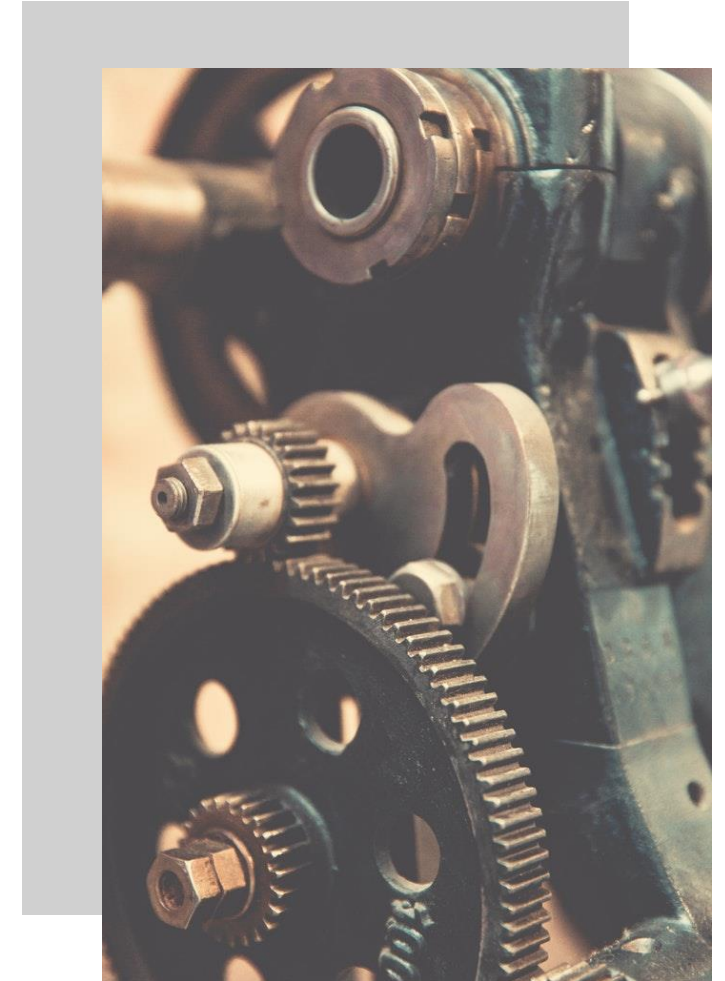

Lack of availability of CCUS infrastructure

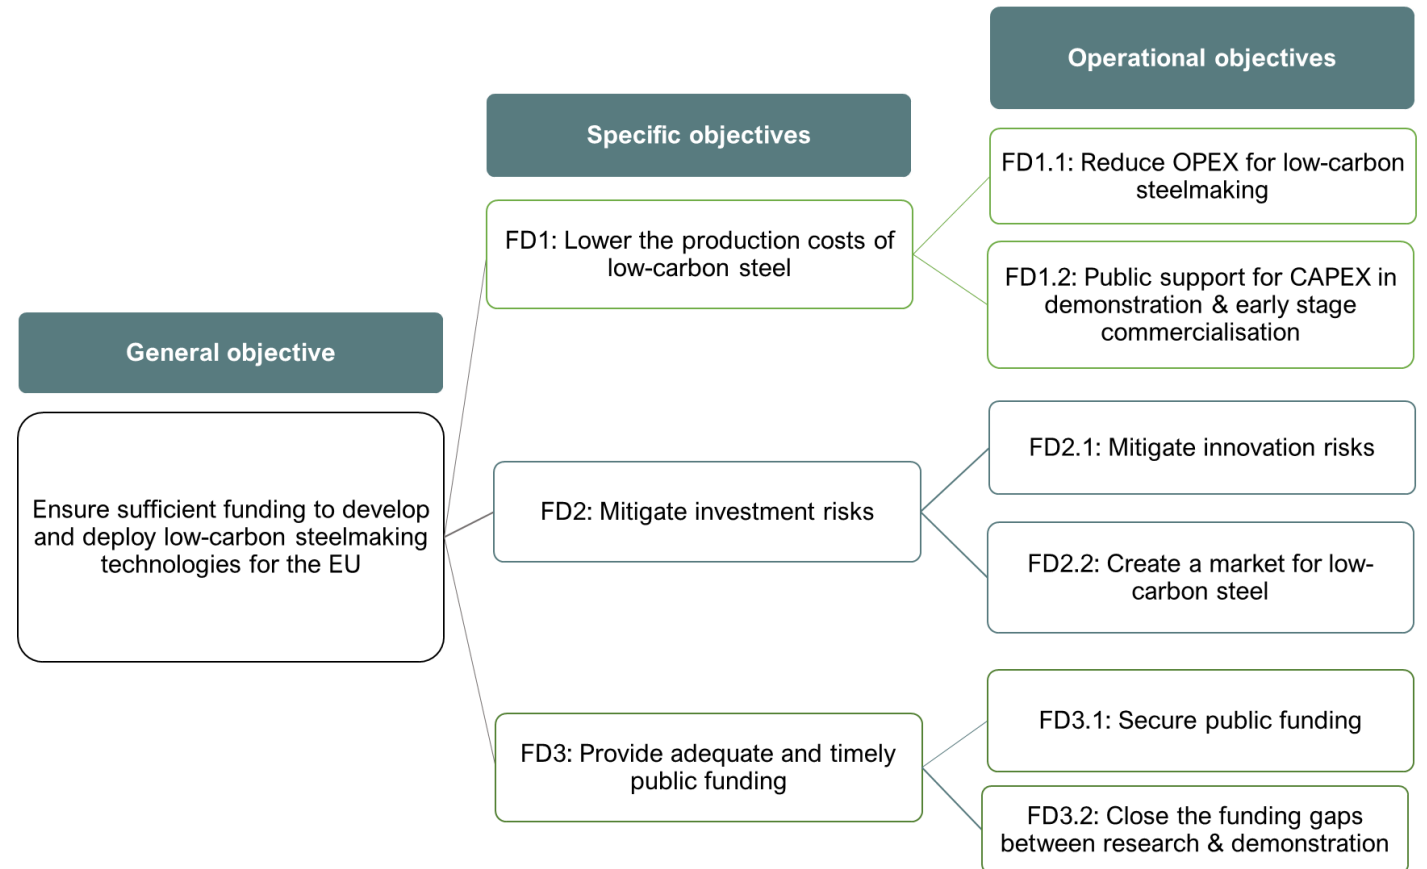

Insufficient carbon pricing measures

Investment and market challenges

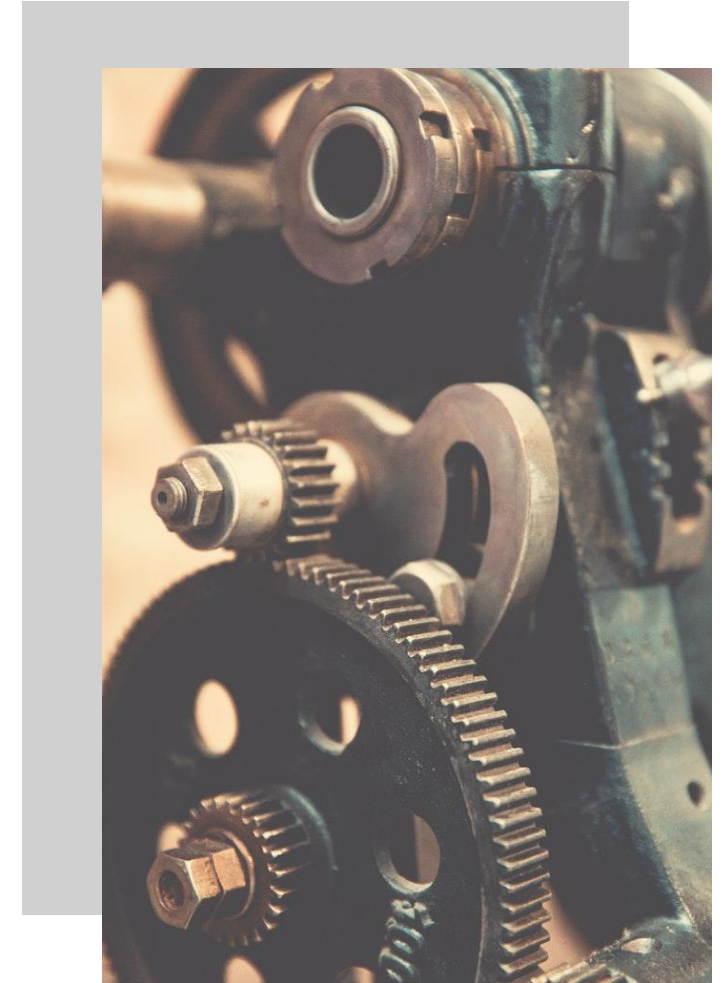

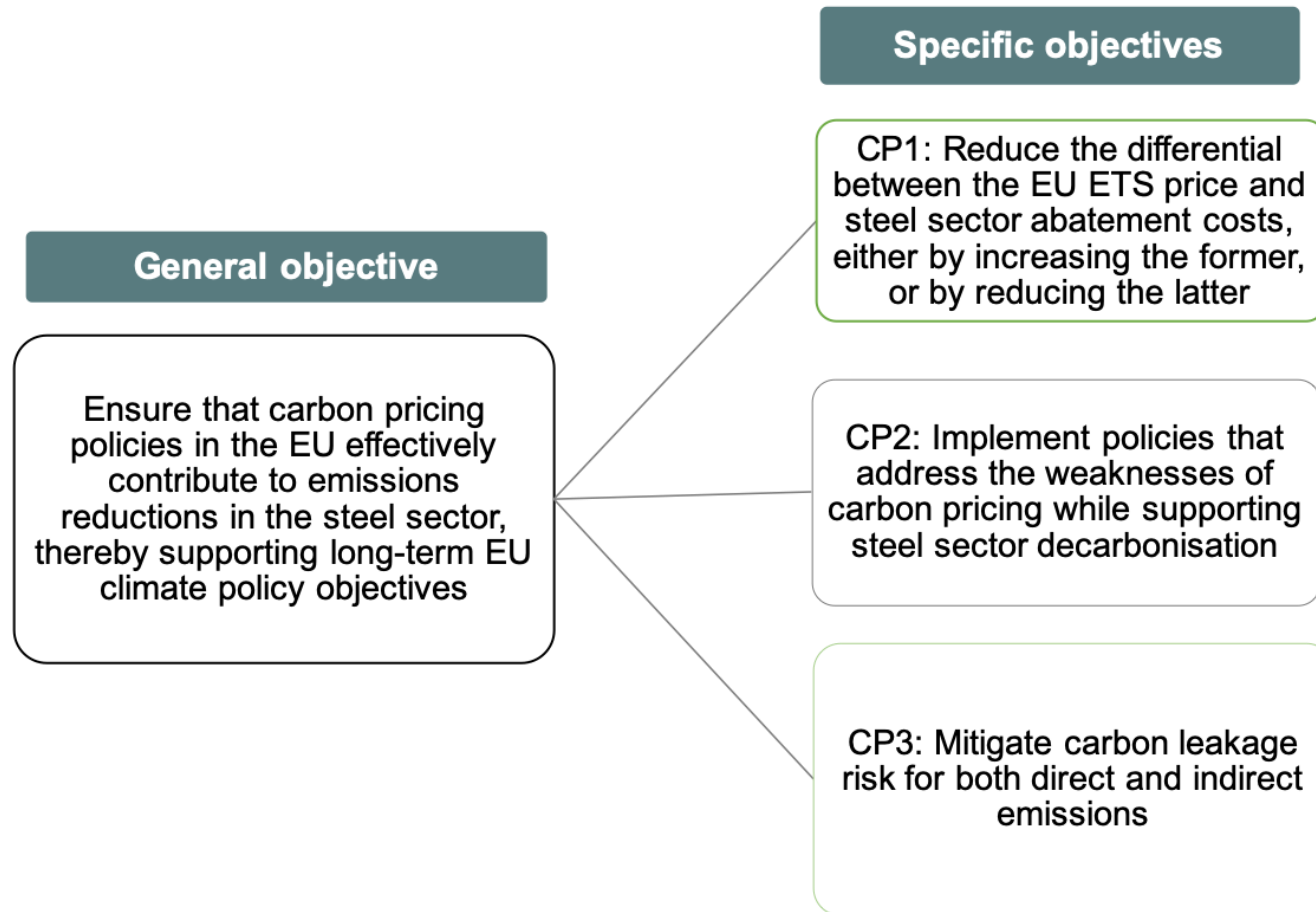

Finance/investment

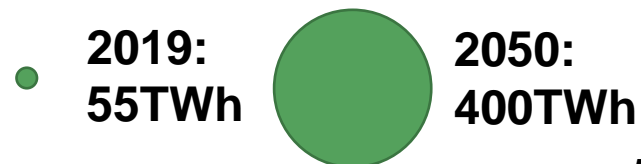

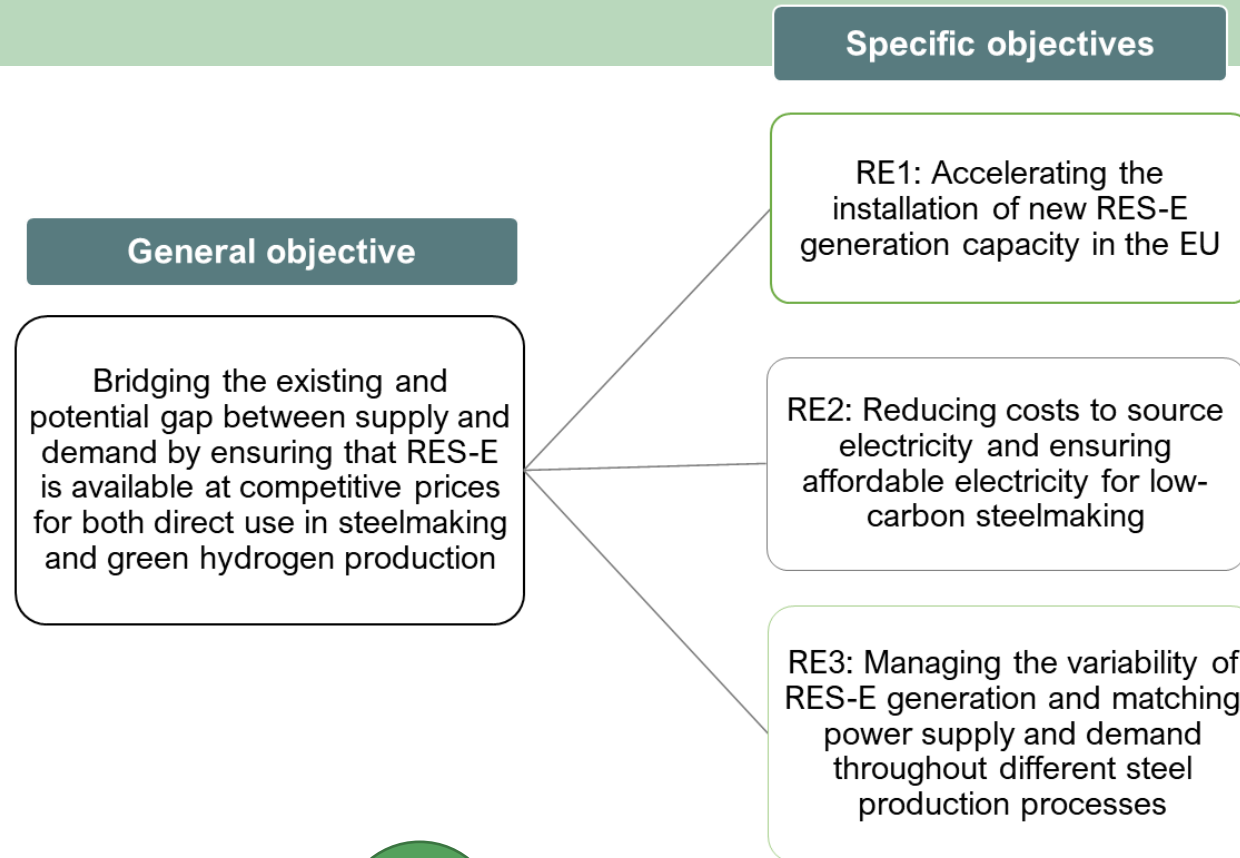

Do not quote, cite or share without author's permission

Carbon pricing challenges

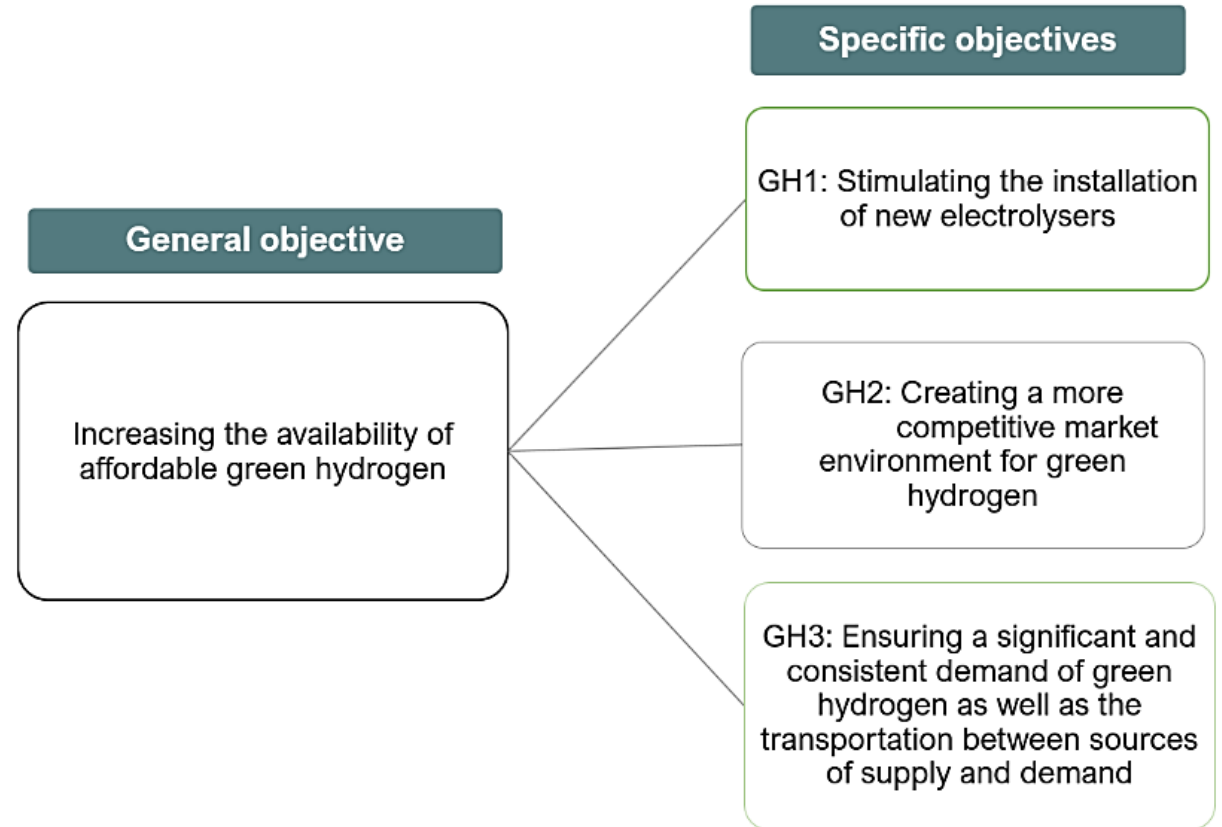

Insufficient RES

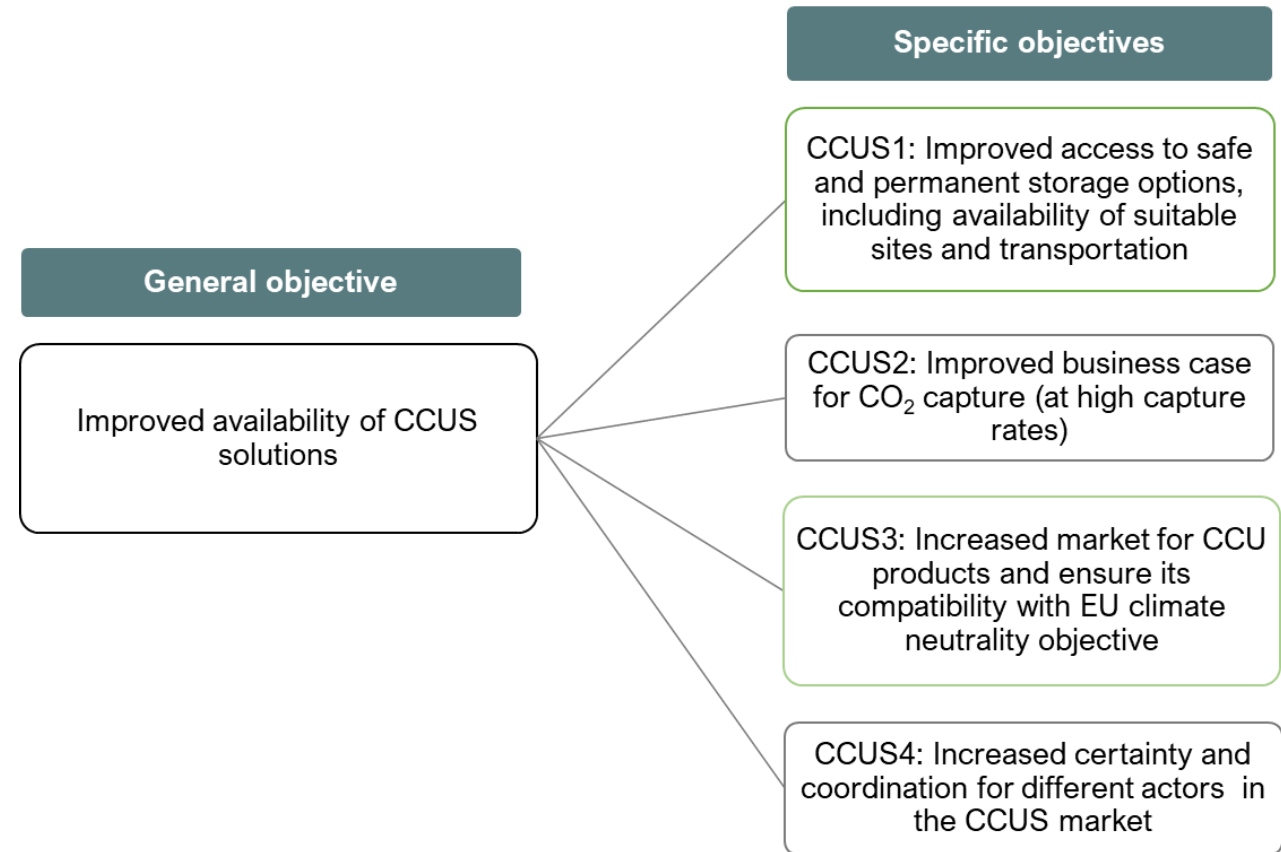

Green hydrogen

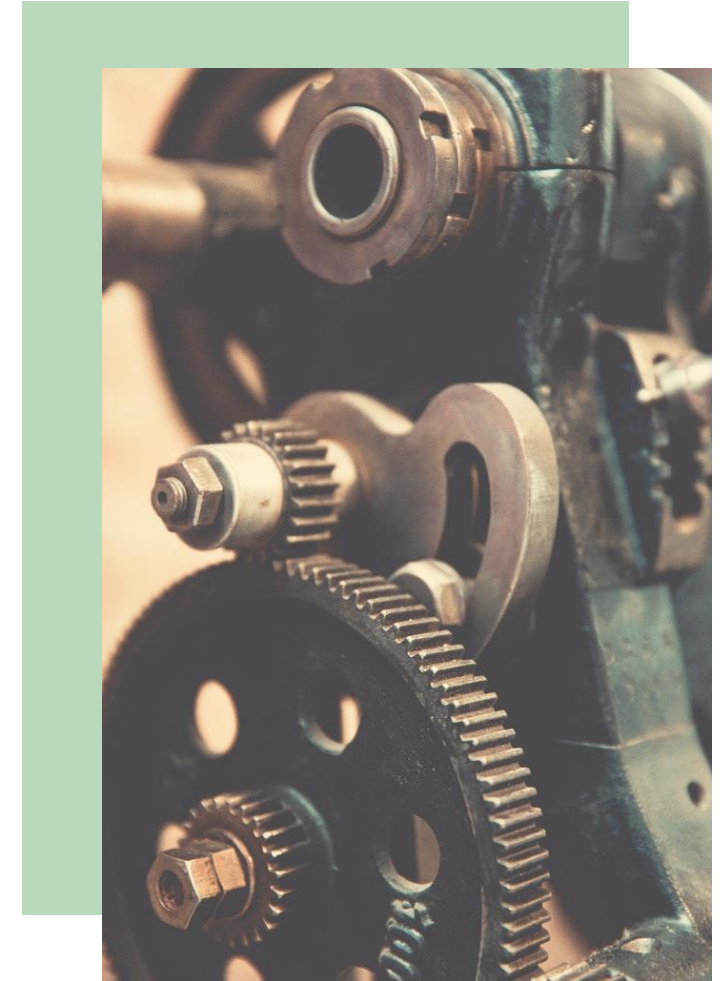

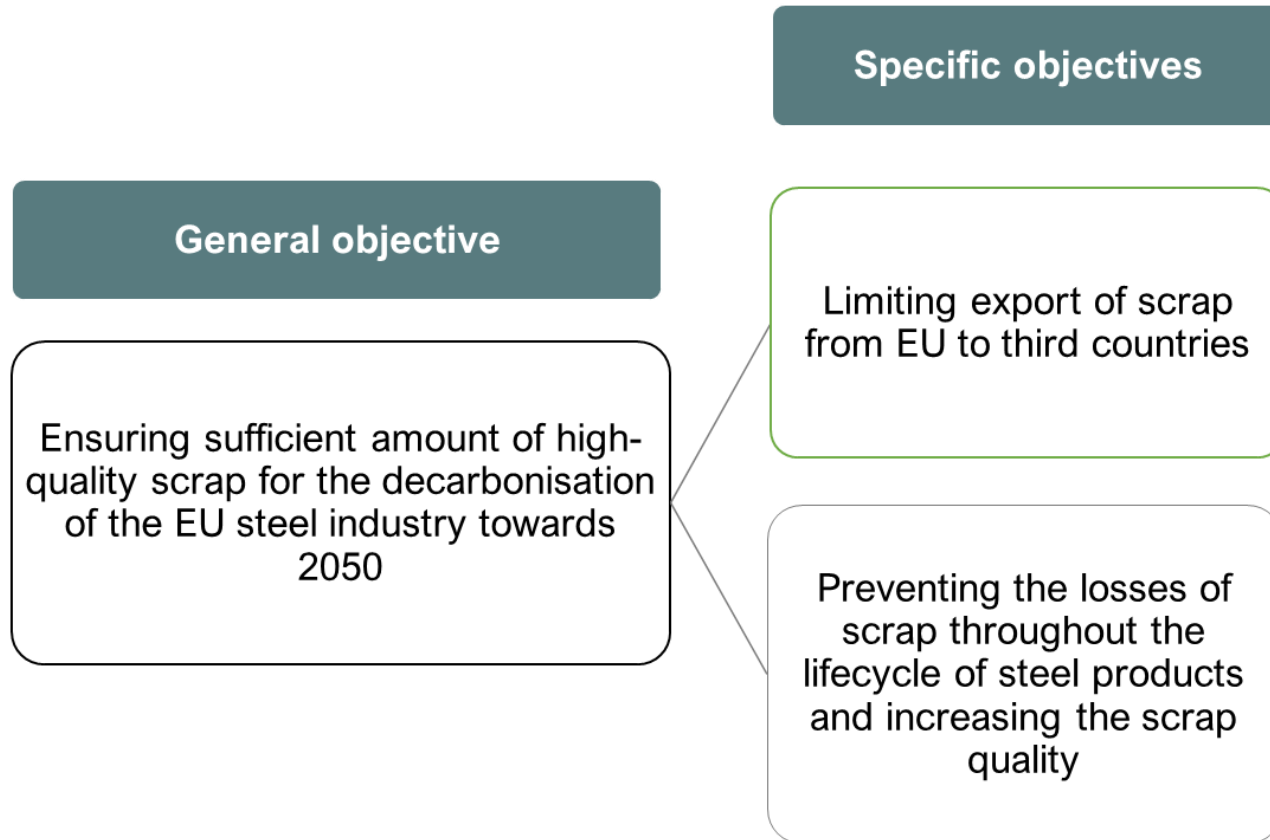

CCUS

Problem: scraps availability

This project has received funding from the European Union under grant agreement NUMBER — 882151 — GREENSTEEL

Thank you

milan.elkerbout@ceps.eu

Twitter: @milanelkerbout

The information and views set out in this document do not necessarily reflect the official opinion of the European Commission. The European Commission does not guarantee the accuracy of the data included in this document. Neither the European Commission nor any person acting on the European Commission's behalf may be held responsible for the use which may be made of the information contained therein.